Dear All,
As you are aware Mrs Dolinski is away on leave presently. I hope she is having a fantastic time as she thoroughly deserves some R&R for her hours of dedication to the Booyal School Community (in and out of school time). I am responsible for this edition of the newsletter so I am apologising in advance for the fact it will probably be 'a bit light on' and no doubt there will be typos.

It is almost 7.00am Friday morning and I am typing frantically. My respect for Mrs D is very much renewed as I know she does this on a weekly basis. On the upside, the drive from Cordalba to Booyal was lovely this morning. There was beautiful mist 'in dem da hills'!

Kind Regards,
Mrs Dyer

A NOTE FROM MRS ILETT (Acting Principal)

Despite the wishes of some of the children that it would be “party time” while Mrs D was away, you have probably noticed by now that homework did go home this week and that safety, healthy eating, hard work and appropriate behaviour are still priorities. I feel privileged to be part of the Booyal team for this couple of weeks and am thoroughly enjoying my time with such positive children, staff and volunteers. Please introduce yourself, if you haven’t already, and don’t hesitate to get in touch if you have any concerns.

Monday, June 9 is a Public Holiday!
The school will be closed. The Dallarnill Sports is on if you are looking for some entertainment.
Nathan and Hannah attended a Transition Day at Isis High yesterday. They were involved in some great activities to ease their move to secondary education when it is time.

Pictured, on the left, is Hannah and some other transitionees in the Science lab. Is she using a Bunsen burner? Parents does that bring back memories of our High School days?

The letter ‘g’ is the table display in the P/1 Classroom next week.

Congratulations to Danita Horner for completing her first 100 sight words. This is a great effort for a Prep student to have achieved at this stage of the year.

Student(s) Of The Week

Even though we didn’t have parade we presented ‘Student Of The Week’ badges at the end of the school day on Monday.

Mrs D’s class: Jessica Warren for always being so positive and putting 100% into all that she does.

P/1 Class: Hamish Vellacott for working so hard on correctly holding his pencil.
Achievement Awards
As there was no parade these were not distributed. As there is no parade on Monday we will have heaps of awards in Week 9!

Gotcha Winners
Danita Horner and Clinton Warren were our winners. Wonder how many gotchas they had in the box in order to be the lucky recipients.

Banking and Library Day is Friday

Thank You
Booyal School Community is lovely to the children. Thank you to all those who volunteered and contributed in some way this week. 😊

SEUSSICAL
Forget the “X Factor” we're looking for the “Seuss Factor”. It’s fun, it’s flexible, it’s a great way for a whole family to be involved in a project together.

After our highly successful launches of the project at Childers and Gin Gin Shows in May, the main event is about to get under way. We’re looking for anyone willing to have a go at portraying one of the fabulous characters created by Dr Seuss. Nearly all of the roles can be played by males or females of any age. We’ve also tried to make the audition process enjoyable for everyone - check out the range of characters available and find the best evening for you.

Audition evenings roll through the district, starting from June 10th. The auditions page is now live on our website - here’s the direct link below.

Booyal’s Auditions - Main Classroom on Wednesday, June 25 from 5.30-7.30pm.

In the picture above.....are these people we know???? Mrs Vaughan do you recognise anyone there???? I believe this was a snap taken by Mrs Horner at the Seussical Launch at the Gin Gin Show.

"Oh, the thinks we can think - together!"

P&C NEWS

A big “Thank You” to all the volunteers that made the Childers Show Canteen a huge success. The team did a fantastic job and our bank balance is healthier for the hard work.

Thank You

We always do our ‘Booyal Best …..and nothing less!’ 😊
